Religious Education:	Year 5	Spring 2	Enquiry Question: How significant is it for Christians to believe God intended Jesus to die?		Religion: Christianity
In this enquiry, you will look at the events of Holy Week (the week leading up to the death and resurrection of Jesus) to investigate the cause and effects of these events
What we will learn:			Link to other aspects of belief		Personal connection
- Christians believe that Jesus is the son of God, who came to Earth in order to save humans from their sins. - His death and resurrection opened up the way back to God and restored humanity's relationship with him. This is the Christian concept of salvation - The Bible cites many examples where Jesus says he knows he will be going to his death. - It says he warned his disciples that "He will be handed over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him and kill him" (Luke 18:32). - Later he told the Roman governor, Pilate, "For this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world" (John 18:37).			Incarnation: God becoming man or literally being "made flesh" so Jesus was God incarnate.		- What sacrifices would I be prepared to make for something I felt was right or necessary? - Can I think of anything that I would wish to make a sacrifice for?
Key Vocabulary					Impact on believer/daily life
Pilate: The Roman governor of the region		Disciples: Jesus's special friends		- Christians believe that Jesus knew he had come into the world to die to bring about the salvation of humans. - This can inspire them to believe Jesus was a very brave and special person, and also carry out sacrifices themselves (e.g. many Christians will abstain from things they enjoy during the 40 days before Holy Week known as Lent).
Incarnation: God as man		Crucifixion: being put to death by being nailed to a cross.
Resurrection: Coming back to life after being put to death		Pharisee: a strictly orthodox Jew who adhered closely to the rules and scriptures.
Home learning ideas/questions: : Have we ever made sacrifices for something we feel strongly about? What kinds of things do we agree may deserve some kind of sacrifice?
