

Kingshurst Primary School
Religious Education:	Year 3	Summer 2	Enquiry Question: What is the best way for a Sikh to show commitment to God? Religion: Sikhism
In this enquiry, you will learn about why sharing is so important to Sikhs. You will look at key festivals and begin to understand how important the community is to Sikhs. Keeping the stories fresh in their minds helps Sikhs live their daily lives in what they believe is the correct way.
What we will learn:		Link to other aspects of belief	Personal connection
- Sikhs are proud to visibly show commitment to their faith – this can be done in many ways including: - Joining the Khalsa through the Amrit Ceremony - Wearing the 5 K's - Worshipping in the Gurdwara - Reading and respecting the Guru Granth Sahib - Serving the community through the Langar meal and other areas of Sewa (service)		- Treatment of the Guru Granth Sahib in the Gurdwara - Worship in the Gurdwara - Langar - Sewa (selfless service) / Vand Chakna (sharing with others)	- How do I show commitment to people I care about? - How do I show commitment to things that are important to me?
Key Vocabulary		Impact on believer/daily life
Waheguru: God		- The symbol meaning “Ik Onkar” is seen in Gurdwaras and Sikh homes. - This symbolises the oneness of God and the oneness of humanity (the belief that everyone is equal). Treating people equally is vital to Sikhs
