What we will learn:		Link to other aspects of belief	Personal connection
Part 1 - Akhirah – Life after death - Muslims believe that when you die there is a judgment day. Allah, who is perfect justice, will decide on your next step after looking at the evidence collected during your life. Part 2 - Jihad is defined as a personal struggle against evil. - Muslims define Jihad in different ways, for some it is an individual daily struggle to do the right thing, to avoid evil and temptation. For some other Muslims jihad can be taken to mean literally fighting against a perceived enemy or evil. This has led some Muslims to take extreme action and even die for their faith as well as kill others in the belief that this action will lead them straight to paradise. - Just War – A Just war is one that might be acceptable to fight - Holy War – A Holy war has religion as the driving force – usually to defend it from attackers		- Belief in Allah and his importance - Zakat – money given to charity as a duty - Sadaqah – money given to a charity as a choice - Khums – Shia Muslims give 20% of their money after expenses to charity 	- What do I think is important in life? - What do I struggle with? - Why is it important to show commitment to things you believe in? - What issues do you think are important? - Why do people protest? - Is every way of protesting acceptable? Explain
